I. General

The basic four-year plan above covers the Bachelor of Science requirements for economics at George Mason University. Please be aware that course scheduling at George Mason University Korea is heavily influenced by the four-year plan above. Students wishing to make changes to the four-year plan above are highly recommended to do so with the assistance of an academic advisor.

For the most updated details on academic policies, requirements, prerequisites, etc., please refer to the University Catalog (URL: catalog.gmu.edu).

II. Important notes

- 1) Bold courses are required to be completed prior to going to the Fairfax campus. Failure to complete required courses can result in the delay of requisite permission to study at the Fairfax campus.
- 2) Italicized courses are recommended to be completed prior to going to the Fairfax campus.
- 3) Economics students must take at least seven credits of Natural Science (i.e., one four-credit lab course and one three-credit non-lab course).
- 4) 120 credits are required for graduation, with at least 45 of those credits coming from upper-level courses (i.e., 300 and/or 400-level courses).
- 5) Please be aware that some upper-level courses in ECON may alternate by semester.
- 6) Students interested in declaring an economics major concentration, double major, and/or minor must first speak with an academic advisor from the respective department/s.

III. Academic advisors

The following advisors are available to discuss student academic plans and answer academic questions throughout the semester:

Chief Academic Advisor Full-Time Advisor for All Majors	Ms. Sharon Kim Email: ykimk@gmu.edu
Faculty Advisor Economics	Prof. Jason Dunick <sup>4</sup> Email: jdunick@gmu.edu
